

TOWN OF PORTSMOUTH, RHODE ISLAND
PORTSMOUTH AWARD

Tracy Clements Anthony

WHEREAS: The Portsmouth Award recognizes certain individuals, businesses and civic groups of the Town of Portsmouth that have consistently demonstrated excellence in professional and community leadership; and

WHEREAS: The residents of the Town of Portsmouth are proud to have Clements Marketplace since 1980; and

WHEREAS: Tracy Clements Anthony, current owner and operator started at her parents store in 1981 at 16 years old. She worked her way throughout the different departments learning and understanding their needs to grow. In 2006, Tracy received the opportunity to grow her brand. She assumed the Management of Clements Marketplace from her parents Don and Barbara Clements; and

WHEREAS: Tracy added to the Clements Brand by acquiring Lee's Market in Westport, MA and opening Clements Marketplace in Plymouth, MA. Combined the three supermarkets employ 400+ full and part-time ambassadors; and

WHEREAS; Tracy, her store managers and staff have kept all the stores open, accessible and safe during this Pandemic. She has also maintained the highest degree of Customer Service by adding Senior Hours for the convenience of our older population to shop safely and conveniently; and

WHEREAS: Tracy has shown consistent commitment to our community through her service and volunteerism to a number of local boards and not for profit Town organizations. Tracy has also served on the Board of Directors for the RI Special Olympics and has held the title of President of the Rhode Island Food Dealers Association.

NOW THEREFOR BE IT RESOLVED: that the Town Council extends its sincere thanks and congratulations on behalf of the citizens of Portsmouth to

Tracy Clements Anthony

Kevin M. Aguiar, President
Portsmouth Town Council

Jennifer M. West, Town Clerk